

WELCOME TO THE BULLDOG CLUB OF AMERICA

The Bulldog Club of America (BCA) is the parent club for bulldogs within the American Kennel Club. It represents the interests of all bulldog clubs in the country and serves as the owner and defender of the breed standard in the United States of America for all AKC registered bulldogs. BCA is the definitive source of bulldog information in the US.

PURPOSE

- To maintain a standard of excellence for the guidance of breeders, owners, and judges
- To improve the breed through encouragement of effort directed toward approach to, or attainment of, the degree of excellence set forth in the standard of the bulldog breed.
- To stimulate interest in competitive public showings of bulldogs.
- To further the interests of the breed.
- To work for the general good of breeders, owners, and exhibitors of bulldogs.

DIVISIONS

There are 8 geographic divisions. Each division is made up of members and member clubs

JOIN US!

Get involved with BCA by attending shows and local club meetings where you can meet fellow bulldog enthusiasts and learn more about the breed. You can volunteer, mentor new bulldog owners, and participate in activities that promote responsible breeding and ownership. There are many ways to be involved!
